Chapter 1 by Andrew Ton That

Dear Me,

You probably think that this letter is a joke, probably from one of your bullies. Dean or Brian maybe. You are most likely going to throw this letter away, but your curiosity is keeping you glued to this letter.

Do not panic now. I have gone through the exact same events you are going through right now. I am you, from the near future that is.

I can't talk much because any word I write in this letter can alter the course of your future, and in parallel, my present. But I can safely write all of this information down because I have received this letter too.

For now, go on with your daily routine until further notice from me.

From: Andrew

Andrew was puzzled. The handwriting was exactly the same as his own. Even the signature was spot on, with that little mark at the end.
